

November 9, 2005

Thank you for inquiring about the Dance Department at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

UNLV Department of Dance Arts is among “the best in the West” and exists in the center of fabulous Las Vegas, one the fastest growing cultural centers in the United States. Entertainment industry employment and artistic opportunities abound in Las Vegas.

For current information on the Dance Department, including degrees, department scholarships and curriculum, please visit our web site at www.unlv.edu. Information on financial aid, work study, etc., can also be found on the web site, or by calling Student Financial Services directly at (702) 895-3424.

We encourage prospective students to come and visit our facilities. Simply call us a few weeks prior to your stay, and let us know when you are coming. We can arrange a tour of our dance studios, a meeting with an advisor, and you may also watch or participate in several classes, if you like. If you would like a guided tour of the entire campus, you will need to contact the Student Orientation Office at (702) 895-2970.

There are no additional requirements beyond general university requirements to register as a dance major. We do hold placement and scholarship auditions, however, at the end of each semester placement auditions result in faculty recommendations on the technique level you should work at. You may also be awarded a scholarship monies based on the scholarship audition. Please call for exact times and dates. If you plan on attending, come prepared with a short piece demonstrating your talents, technique, choreography, etc. If you will not be able to attend, please send videotape no more than five minutes in length, along with your scholarship application, to the UNLV Dance Department.

For advising please call the Fine Arts advising college to make an appointment. 702-895-5391. They are located in the CDC bldg, room 119. Also you may call Sandra O’Brien, Dance Department Administrative Assistant at 702-895-3827.

Look forward to meeting you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Louis Kavouras", written in a cursive style.

Louis Kavouras, Chair
UNLV Department of Dance

